A line of steamers from Tampa to Key West will commence operations next week.

A difference in time is said to be the cause of the collision on the Seaboard and Plymouth Saturday.

Daytona is to have an ostrich farm and a sort of zoological garden. It will be managed by J. B. Booth.

Daytona is anxious to have a big hotel and an effort will be made to have one built there in the near future.

J. Platt of Lancaster, Suwannee county, has invented a cane grinding machine that promises to be a winner.

Plant City has got the spirit of enterprise and will vote to bond for $10,000 for street paving within a few weeks.

Monday night a small blaze in the store of Suraski Bros., Live Oak, did $100 worth of damage before it was extinguished.

Miami is getting after the pistol voters and a few days ago one of those fellows was fined $100 or three months in the gang.

The two cotton gins at Raiford have ginned over 600 bales of cotton this fall and they will make it a 1,000 before the close of operations.

The Jacksonville Pure Food and Industrial Exposition will be opened by President Roosevelt on a special wire at 8:30 p. m., January 4th.

The physicians of Pensacola are not required to take out a license, owing to the fact that they do so much charitable work in their practice.

There are only 30 licensed dogs in Daytona, says the mayor, and it is asserted that twice that number are seen fighting on the streets every day.

The trial of the Wilder brothers for the murder of Oscar Brannen, which was set for this week, has been postponed to some time in January, at Plant City.

Capt. Spencer C. Stone died at his home in Ocala Saturday afternoon. He served four years in the Confederate Army and was a trusted scout under Gen. Joe Wheeler.

The coming municipal election in Daytona promises to be a lively one. There are four candidates in the field for mayor, all willing to stand the kicks that officer generally receives.

Jacksonville judges are getting magnanimous. A "tourist" who was begging from door to door on the streets of that city a few days ago was furnished quarters at Raspberry Park for 30 days.

"Fretful" Sinkfield is the name of a Pensacola darkey who got so very fretful that the gentleman who presides at the bar of justice in that city relieved him of $10 and costs, so he would not have so much money to fret about.

A banquet was given to Dr. J. Y. Porter at the Seminole Club in Jacksonville Monday evening by Dr. J. D. Fernandez and it was a most royal occasion. Dr. Porter stands high in the estimation of the medical profession of Jacksonville.

A recent issue of The Chipley Banner contained 34 notices of parties proving up their homestead claims. All of the notices are dated December 20th. This is perhaps the largest number of homestead notices, for the same date, ever published in any county in Florida.

Capt. W. W. Erwin of Miami will be in line for a hero medal one of these days. He saved a fisherman from drowning a few days ago and on Saturday he stopped a horse that was running at full speed into the open draw of the swing bridge in that city. He saved the outfit from a watery grave.

Wants Case Advanced.

Washington, Dec. 20.—In the supreme court W. A. Wimblish, of Atlanta, has moved to advance the case of the Mercantile Trust and Deposit company versus the city of Columbus, involving the right of the city of Columbus to erect its own system of waterworks. Joseph H. Packard, of Baltimore, represented the bondholders. The case will probably be heard about the 1st of February.

Cured Paralysis.

W. F. Baily, P. O. True, Texas, writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her alright. I have also used it for old sores, frostbites and skin eruptions. It does the work." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Want Another Election.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 20.—A petition signed by 509 citizens of Baldwin county asks the governor to order an election to decide whether Bay Minette or Daphne shall be the county seat. Bay Minette was chosen some time ago and a new courthouse built, but a recent decision of the supreme court seems to give color to the claim that the election was not legal.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Coleson of Mazonville, Ia., "that for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at all druggists.

Tragedy During Marriage.

Meridian, Miss., Dec. 20.—A telephone message received here tells of a tragedy in Kemper county, 3 miles from DeKalb, in which Andrew Young shot and killed Bill Fulton. Further than the killing, which took place at the home of Mr. Hickman during a marriage ceremony, no particulars can be learned. All the parties are prominent citizens of Kemper county.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Wisconsin's Governor Resigns.
Madison, Wis., Dec. 20.—Governor LaFollette today sent to the legislature his resignation as governor to take effect the first Monday in January.

Heart Fluttering.

Undigested food and gas in the stomach, located just below the heart, presses against it and causes heart palpitation. When your heart troubles you in that way take Herbine for a few days. You will soon be all right. 50c a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

BIG FIRE LOSS AT MOULTRIE.

Twenty-Five Thousand Dollar Damage Done by Flames.

Moultrie, Ga., Dec. 20.—The most disastrous fire that Moultrie has had in several years has occurred here.

Several leading merchants had their stores gutted and the total damage will reach at least $25,000.

The fire was first discovered in the store of P. H. McCarty, and spread to the stores on each side.

There were other small losses and damages to adjoining buildings.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician, but before he could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe Democrat, December 1st, 1901." Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Canal for Port Arthur, Tex.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Secretary Taft has accepted the offer of the delegation which appeared before him last week in connection with the construction with the Port Arthur, Tex., canal to supply the right of way and the engineers will at once begin the work of improvement, having a fund of $250,000 available for that purpose.

The Requisite of Beauty.

The first requisite of beauty is a clear complexion. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup clears a sallow, blotched complexion, as it stimulates the liver and bowels, and the eyes become bright and clear. You owe it to your friends to take it if your complexion is bad. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and it is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Company.

Communication Severed Again.

New York, Dec. 20.—The cable companies received notice today that telegraphic communications with St. Petersburg has been severed again.
